Commissioner Kovick made a motion to accept the minutes from the January 22nd, 2024, Planning & Zoning meeting. Commissioner Allen seconded the motion. Motion carried.

Commissioner Teresa Allen welcomed New Commissioners Angela Graham and Ron Martinez.

Commissioner Graham said she worked at Internet Truck Stop for 25 years. She has three grown children. She cares very much about this community and looks forward to making a difference serving as a planning and zoning commissioner.

Commissioner Martinez said he's a retired teacher of 42 years, and 10 years of coaching. He lived in Sun Valley for 22 years. His daughter got married to a Fruitland boy. They moved here to be closer to his daughter and her family. It's been such a positive community, and he is happy to be serving as a planning and zoning commissioner.

NEW BUSINESS

a. Comp Plan Discussion-

Discussion between commissioners on the Comp Plan. Commissioner Kovick will bring the information for the professional people that would be willing to help us out with our comp plan. Clerk Marianne Gatchell explained that the plan is for the city to budget for this next year fiscal year funds to spend on the comp plan. The mayor had decided this would be the best course of action. We want to do the comp plan right as it's an important part of the city's future.

Commissioner Martinez made a motion to adjourn. Commissioner Kovick seconded the motion. Motion carried meeting adjourned at 6:29 p.m.
